

East European Studies at the University of Warsaw

Polish Chapter of "THE EXPLORERS CLUB"

Museum of the University of Warsaw

are honored to invite you to INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE

"Wacław Sieroszewski and Polish Explorers of Siberia"

Tuesday 20 October 2020

9.00 (16.00 in Yakutsk) - Official opening of the conference

Greeting guests:

Jan Malicki, Ph.D. East European Studies at the University of Warsaw

prof. Mariusz Ziółkowski, President, Polish Chapter of "THE EXPLORERS CLUB"

Tomasz Grzywaczewski, członek, Oddział Polski „THE EXPLORERS CLUB”

dr hab. Hubert Kowalski, dyrektor, Muzeum Uniwersytetu Warszawskiego

Jan Malicki dr h.c., dyrektor, Studium Europy Wschodniej UW

Session I (9.30-10.30)

Moderator: prof. Mariusz Ziółkowski

9.30-9.45 prof. Jekaterina N. Romanowa, The intellectual landscape of Yakutia at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries: the personal narrative of Polish researchers (lecture in Russian)

9.45-10.00 dr hab. prof. UJK Grażyna Legutko, Problems related to the critical edition of the diary of Wacław Sieroszewski

10.00-10.15 Dr. Jegor P. Antonow, Polish exile intellectuals in the scientific and cultural life of Yakutia - lecture in Russian

10.15-10.30 discussion

- break

Session II (11.00-12.00)

Moderator: prof. Leszek Zasztowt

11.00-11.15 Dr. Anna A. Mojakunowa, Edward K. Piekarski and Jakucja: biography of the political exile and scientist (interpretation of archival documents) - lecture in Russian

11.15-11.30 Dr. Lucjan Buchalik, Between science and business - Wacław Sieroszewski in Żory, Poland

11.30-11.45 Dr. Lena B. Stepanowa, Visual images of the peoples of north-eastern Siberia in photographic projects of Polish exiles - lecture in Russian

11.45-12.00 discussion

12.00-12.30 Closing of the conference

Tomasz Grzywaczewski, F.I., member, Polish Chapter of "THE EXPLORERS CLUB"

dr hab. Hubert Kowalski, director, Museum of the University of Warsaw

Jan Malicki, Ph.D. h.c., director, East European Studies at the University of Warsaw